Warner Pacific College 2014 Homecoming

THURSDAY, February 6, 2014

10:00 am

Homecoming Chapel, McGuire Auditorium

We'll get the weekend off to a great start as we gather together for a morning of worship led by our current students and the College's Associate Director of Campus Ministries, Michelle Lang. Our featured alumni speaker will be announced soon, so watch the Warner Pacific Homecoming webpage for more details.

11:00 am

Reception, McGuire Auditorium Atrium

Connect with friends old and new at a casual reception hosted by Warner Pacific. Light refreshments will be served; there is no cost to attend.

11:30 am

Golden Torch and Pacific Bible College Luncheon, Egtvedt 203

This annual event has become a highlight of Homecoming weekend. Join fellow alumni as we celebrate the rich legacy of the College. We'll also honor members of the class of 1964 as they return to campus for their induction into the Golden Torch Society.

Cost: $15.00 per person. Reservations due January 27.

5:00 pm

Alumni Council Meeting, Egtvedt 203

Under the leadership of council president, Garth Hamilton '98, the council will meet to discuss dreams and plans to advance the mission of the College.

6:30 pm

Dessert and Jazz Concert, McGuire Auditorium

Your toes will be tapping as you enjoy a lively evening of music presented by the Vocal Jazz Ensemble under the direction of Dr. Kelly Ballard '90, '92, and the Jazz Band under the direction of Dr. Dennis Plies. These talented students will transport you with popular tunes as you enjoy a scrumptious dessert buffet.

Cost: $10.00 per person. Reservations due January 27.

FRIDAY, February 7, 2014

9:30 am

Brunch with First-Year Learning Community Panel, Egtvedt 203

Enjoy a casual brunch followed by an enlightening panel discussion focused on Warner Pacific's innovative First-Year Learning Community (FYLC) program. At this moderated discussion, you'll hear from students, faculty, and staff who are currently participating in FYLCs at Warner Pacific. Learning Communities focus on issues relevant to incoming students including: transitioning to college, social support, study skills, and community building. Using the city of Portland as their classroom, FYLCs immerse students in interdisciplinary, collaborative, hands-on learning. The four themes of the College's mission statement serve as the intentional framework of our FYLC model: Christ-centered, urban, liberal arts, and diversity.

Cost: $10.00 per person. Reservations due January 27.

1:00 pm

Friday Arts, McGuire Auditorium

Take a break and relax with an informal afternoon of music presented by the College's talented student musicians at the Friday Arts Performance Series. Feel free to bring your lunch and come and go as you are able. A wide array of performance levels are showcased at this weekly community gathering.

Cost: There is no cost to attend this event.

5:30 pm

Women's Basketball vs. Northwest Christian University, CC Perry Gymnasium

Warner Pacific Knights vs. Northwest Christian University. Purchase tickets for the game at the door.

Cost: $5.00 per person, includes both men's and women's games.
