Guide to Service Projects at Warner Pacific College

HOURS
Service hours are due by the Friday before the last week of classes each semester. Extensions are not typically granted.

CATEGORIES
- Ecological Justice
- Economic Equity
- Gender Equity
- Interfaith Relationships
- Racial/Ethnic Equity
- Support for the Disabled & Elderly
- Youth & Child Support

For descriptions, contact jwhitten@warnerpacific.edu.

REQUIREMENTS
Commuter Students are required to do a total of 25 faith & service hours per semester.

Which includes at least 5 chapel hours and 5 service hours.

Residential Students are required to complete 10 service credits and 15 chapel hours per semester.

This guide is a resource for Warner Pacific community and will assist in planning meaningful and effective service projects for our students that will qualify for service hour requirements.

To Count Toward Students’ Service Requirement, Projects Should:

- Be meeting a tangible need for our neighbors in or around the city of Portland
- Not be monetarily compensated
- Address one of the categories stated in the “Categories” box on the left side of this guide

Some Additional Helpful Information:

- Students are responsible for logging their own service hours on the Warner Pacific website
- Students can keep track of how many hours they have by logging into the system on the WPC website
- Internships may count for service credit if they fit the criteria above

Questions? Contact Jeanie Whitten-Andrews jwhitten@warnerpacific.edu